WHICH WAY?

When a shy little maid, of the world afraid,
Sets forth on love's highway,
She knows not where the road may fare
Or where her feet may stray.
For a time the road runs wide and straight,
And its pleasures wing the hours;
But at last it divides, and there are no guides,
Save the birds and the nodding flow'rs.
When she comes to the forks of love's highway—
As come she must some day—
And her head says "This way," but her heart says "That."
Which way shall she turn? Which way?

Oh, many a maid has stood afraid
At the forks of love's highway,
And has asked of the trees or the parting breeze
By which road true love lay.
And never, ah, never, since love began
Has maiden heard reply.
For the flow'rs and trees and the birds and breezes,
They know no more than I.

When she comes to the forks of love's highway—
As come she must some day—
And her head says "This way," and her heart
says "That."
Which way shall she turn? Which way?

WELLS GOING DRY

Ragland Oil Fields Will Soon Be Worthless

The noted Ragland oil fields, situated in Bath county, are failing fast.

The production is not near so great as it was. Some of the wells have gone dry entirely and others are fast failing. These wells were discovered about ten years ago and for a while the yield was remarkable.

Fabulous prices were paid to the people that owned the land when the oil was discovered, and now their failure will cause a great loss to those that invested and many hands will be without work.

MARRIAGES

Mr. J. S. Prather of Pera Leaf and Miss Minnie Lee Wells of Shannon were united in marriage yesterday at the Ramey House in this city, Rev. G. W. Bunton officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. C. C. Wells of Sardis, and is a very worthy young lady. Her wedding gown was of blue silk.

The groom is quite well known and is very highly esteemed.

He and his bride have the hearty congratulations and good wishes of their friends.

The river here is on a stand this morning, with 49.9 feet on the gage. It has been another narrow escape for the dwellers in Front street, this city, and Aberdeen. The high waters below will retard the receding of the river and it will be several days before there will be any perceptible change here in the condition of the high water. The present rise is exactly 9 tenths of a foot higher than the February rise.

Police Court.

As evidence that we all don't see alike was thoroughly demonstrated in the Police Court
the other day when Hattie Reynolds, Bell Starks and Anna Jackson were arraigned on a breach of peace warrant. All had committed a like offense and the same witnesses and same testimony were used in all three cases.
Each of the defendants demanded a trial by a Jury.

In the first case the Reynolds woman was acquitted, in the second Belle Starks was accused one cent and costs, and in the third Anna Jackson drew a prize package, $20 and costs and twenty-five days in Jail.

Now the funny part of the whole business is that the testimony that acquitted Hattie Reynolds in the first trial convicted Anna Jackson in the last legal hitch. Had the Police Judge heard the cases it is almost a certainty that all three would have been dosed good and strong, as they should have been.

ONE thing can be said of the little log schoolhouse: It ain't no fire trap.

PROBABLY at this very moment Mr. BRYAN is making another speech.—Chicago News.

MAYBE old Kentucky has a bad case of the jim-jams after her prolonged drunk of a hundred and eighteen years.

IT is always a safe bet that whisky and politics have doomed old Kentucky to the damnation she is now struggling under.

A NEW YORK sociologist announces that pickpockets often make $7,000 a year. Even at that it is probably better to be a Hungarian nobleman.

MATTEAWAN alienists say that HARRY THAW is a hopeless paranoiac, and that the disease is progressive. When he regains his liberty he will probably behave like a night rider.—Courier-Journal.

VOTES at a dollar per and murders at $100 each were the market price in Breathitt during the Hargis regime. The price of votes seems a little too cheap, while the assassination quotations were entirely and ridiculously too high.

Caleb Powers has been in Jail eight years.

The case of Beach Hargis will come up for trial at Jackson today.

The rumper in England over Emperor William's letter concerning the English Navy, turns out a tempest in a teapot.

Mrs. Henry Myers of East Third street, Fifth Ward, is convalescing, after a serious sick spell with typhoid fever.

THE embarrassing thing to the Republicans of the country is that they are overstocked with No. 1 Presidential timber. The supply exceeds the demand.—Winchester Democrat.

GOODBYE to Old Kentucky—"My Old Kentucky Home, Good Night," is the song many brow-beaten, back-whipped Kentuckians are dolefully singing as they are winding up their business to remove to some other State, free from the torch and whip of the detestable night rider.—Casey County News.

MARSE HENRY is hardly ever wrong, but here's what he says in his latest inspirational editorial from Naples-on-the-Gulf, the favored land of sand and sunshine and palm and Havana cigars:

"There stands WILLIAM HENRY TAFT. Grand, but not gloomy; obese, but not peculiar."

Who in the devil is WILLIAM HENRY TAFT?

BRYAN and JOHNSON appear to be in the same relative position in the race for the Democratic nomination that characterizes the candidacy of TAFT and HUGHES. It would be rather singular, and at the same time quite probable, that all four of the above names should constitute the two Presidential tickets, viz: BRYAN and JOHNSON and TAFT and HUGHES. Paste this memo in your head.

THE MISSING KISS.

Pearson's Weekly.

George had been away on business for a whole long week, and during that time he had sent Clara ten letters, six letter cards and forty-two picture post cards.

Why, then, was there a touch of coldness in her greeting when he flew to her arms on his return?

"Dearest," he whispered, "what is the matter?"

"Oh, George," she said, "you didn't send me a kiss in your ninth letter."

"My precious," he replied, "that night I had steak and onions for dinner, and you wouldn't have liked a kiss after onions, would you?"

And, such is the unfathomable power of love, she was satisfied and nestled to him.

PADUCAH, Ky., March 10th.—One hundred masked night riders rode into the town of Birmingham, Marshall county, late last night, shot six Negroes, one of them, it is believed, fatally, and whipped five others. The riders took possession of the town and shot into every Negro cabin in the place. In one of these, John Scruggs, his wife and three children and a granddaughter were struck by bullets. Scruggs is probably fatally wounded. The riders then took five other Negroes to the banks of the Tennessee, where they whipped them. After warning about twenty-five other Negroes to leave the place, the masked men rode away. The raid followed a warning of two weeks ago to all Negroes to leave Birmingham.

POWERS

Wants Governor Willson to Examine Petition With 100,000 Names

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 10th.—S. M. Wilson of this city and Judge J. C. Sims of Bowling Green, of Caleb Powers counsel, decided today at Powers's request to appeal to Governor Willson at once to examine the petitions for Powers's pardon and pass on them. It is understood that 100,000 names have been signed to the petitions. Powers's idea of wanting the petitions passed on now is said to be that if he is to be pardoned he wants to know it, so he can take steps prosecuting his candidacy for Congress in the Eleventh District, where the Convention is set for June 6th.

LONGING

Byron Williams.

I am jaded and cloyed with the struggle
In the fetid den of slaves,
And my heart is a-thirst for the woodland
Where the pulsing river laves.
I am sick for the tide of the grasses,
For the peace of the soothing elm,
For the joys of a cruise in the clover,
For a drift with an unmanned helm!

Ah! My heart, in the depth of the valleys
Where the rivulet sings along,
Is as glad as the world that is bursting
With the joy of a Nature song.
And the thrushes are trilling their love
songs,
While the kingfisher shrieks with glee,
And the skater bugs skip on the willows
While en route to a far off sea.
See the cardinal flash in the bushes
And the tanager flit on high.
From a monarch dethroned by the lightning,
Hear the red-head vent his cry!

Ah! A mudturtle creeps up the pathway
For a jog at his turtle pace.
See him hide in his shell when the barefoot,
With a whoop, meets him face to face!

And the swimming hole, deep in the bayou,
Is a-pulse with a cooling strain.
To the boy it is calling and calling
To its cooling depths again!
I am jaded and weary of striving
In the fetid den of slaves—
I would yield to the call of the river
Where the pulsing billow laves!

To the Editor of The Courier-Journal: I offer some thoughts which came to me along the lines of night-riding operations. Since these parties have undertaken to regulate (?) heaven and earth, I suggest that they appropriate and execute some of the letters below, for which there is no charge.

"To Dry, Goods & Co.: Sirs—If you do not leave your store unlocked next Friday night and allow us to come and get some goods, we will burn you out, shoot your cow and kill your cat. This must be posted on your hat two days.

"To the Bishop: Dear Bishop—We don't like the circuit riders you have been sending us, and if you don't send better Preachers here on Dogwood circuit we will burn down your meeting-house and blow you up with dynamite. A word to the wise is sufficient. This must be posted over the pulpit until next Christmas or we will kill the sexton.

"To Farmer Smith's Tomato: Say, old mouser, you are not catching all the mice we would like to see you get, and you must mend your licks, or we will snave off your beard, cut off your tail and set the dogs on you. This must be posted in the barn, or we will kill the mule.

"To Parson Smith: We did not like your sermon last Sunday, and you must preach a sermon commending all night riders and consigning them to heaven, or we will rob the collection box next week and steal your hat.

"To an Aged Spinster: Dear Miss Cynthia—It is a shame you have not married long before this, and we think you had better get married at once, and will give you three months for this purpose, and if you are not married in three months we will throw you in the river and burn your house.

"To the Public Generally: If you don't patronize Jake Simpkins's saloon better and drink up all his bug-juice, we will set the woods afire and destroy the County Jail and Courthouse and do other things to induce a good trade for our friend Jake.

THE LEGISLATURE

Message From the Governor Recommending Needed Action

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 10th.
—When Acting Speaker Sullivan rapped for order in the House this morning in the absence of Speaker Gooch, the corridors outside the hall and the lobbies were filled with interested onlookers, practically all of whom were interested in one or more measures now pending. A message was read from Governor A. E. Willson calling attention to the approaching lapse of insurance policies held on various State buildings.

The message suggested that many States are permitting insurance on their public buildings to expire. The Governor submits the various policies expiring to the Legislature and leaves it to the discretion of that body as to whether they shall be renewed. His message also deals with the problem of removing the records from the old to the new State Building and suggested steps to that end.

The Governor recommends the adoption of a resolution authorizing the Governor to name a commission to represent the State at the anniversary of Lincoln's birth, which will be celebrated near Hodgenville, Larue county, February 12th, 1909.

The House defeated the Dowling bill, changing the tax exemption law, so that the exemption should not be in excess of $500 for a married man.

A non-partisan Board of Control for the Asylums seems now assured as the passage of such a bill by the Senate today by a unanimous vote indicates there is an understanding between the Democrats and Republicans on the subject.

At New York, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw today will institute proceedings for the annulment of her marriage to Harry K. Thaw. The action will be based on the allegation that the defendant was insane when the union was contracted. Thaw proposes to defend the suit.

THE PERFECT WAY.
Scores of Maysville Citizens Have Learned It.

If you suffer from backache, There is only one way to cure it. The perfect way is to cure the kidneys. A bad back means sick kidneys. Neglect it, urinary troubles follow. Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

James Wells, living on Front street, Vanceburg, Ky., says: "About one month before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills my back began to ache and pain and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I knew that if the trouble was not eradicated it might prove fatal. Often when I came home at night and went to bed the trouble was so severe that I had to continually change my position, and during the day I had to pass the secretions every little while. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured them and the use of one box entirely cured me. I have had no symptom of kidney trouble since and give the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills."

Plenty more proof like this from Maysville people. Call at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drug-store and ask what their customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

J. S. Markwell purchased of P. F. Martin the photograph gallery.

J. W. Goddard, wife and son, Bert, are visiting I. J. Million and family at this place.

J. S. Markwell purchased the property of Thomas Stevens, situated in the West End of town.

Rev. Charles Bartlett has recently moved from Winchester and will live at Bowman Springs.

Rev. C. E. Brown of Covington, assisted by Rev. Robert Tolle of Maysville, closed a series of meetings at this place with two additions.

Quite a number from this place attended an entertainment at Mt. Carmel given by the members of the Christian Church Friday night.

Those on the sick list are—George Humphreys, O. W. Martin, Mrs. T. C. Selsor, Hiram Humphreys, Little Glen Berry and Douglas Martin.

FEARIS.

Plenty of grip weather again.

Snow No. 13 fell here Monday morning.

Rev. Davenport preached here Saturday night.

Friday the thermometer went up to 72° and the farmer started the plow.

Thomas Boggs of the firm of Adams & Boggs went home sick with the grip last week.

Two more weeks of winter and six weeks of pre-winter before corn planting time.

It's a little too soon to prognosticate on the fruit crop, but we think the peaches are not winter killed.

It seems many people want a soft (?) snap carrying the mail on this route, from the bids that are going in.

The usual annual exchange of residence has got a move on some people. Many people want work and others would rather move.

The ground was in good condition for farming until the recent heavy rains. Ground that has been broken up will have to freeze up before it will be fit to cultivate.

BOGGS.

Joe Henderson has sold his farm to his brother, Frank.

What has become of the good roads movement in the Legislature?

J. L. Crawford died of tuberculosis last week and was buried at Ebenezer.

Mr. F. F. Osborn, aged 84, continues critically ill at his home near this place.

The grip has been raging in this locality, but all the patients seem to be convalescing at present.

John McNutt, who died at Hamilton, Ohio, was brought here for burial in Ebenezer Cemetery.

Mrs. Potts gave a sale last Saturday, and will shortly move from this locality, having sold her place to Mr. Calvert.

The Chicago Convention may as well be declared off, as so many newspapers nominate Taft every day without conventions.

If Bradley's election means the defeat of the County Unit Bill, it is to be deplored that he was elected, and will doom the Republican party in Kentucky.

Many citizens of these parts are rejoicing that the prospects are favorable to drive the saloons from Manchester, as a great many from this end of Lewis go to that place to do their trading.

The Red and Blue contest in Ebenezer Sunday-school has greatly enlarged the school, there being 123 present last Sunday, which was a very rainy day. The Reds are in the lead at present, and the contest will close the last of March.

Our mail was stopped last Thursday by high water. If our mail routes were properly arranged, we would not be deprived of our mail several days of the year on account of high water, and why Uncle Sam disregards all petitions to have the service improved is a puzzle to the citizens of this section. If our mail should go direct to Springdale, via Cottageville, and the McKenzie mail should go to Trinity, via Fearis, there would be no back tracking, as at present, no stopping on account of high creeks, and more people would be served. We believe the people should get Mr. Bennett to touch up the Department in regard to this matter.

Mr. Henry P. Chenoweth, formerly of this city, who has been very ill at Birmingham, Ala., is recovering.

Mrs. Henry Burk of East Second street, who has been sick for the past two months, remains in a critical condition.

Charles N. Ward has been appointed Acting Clerk of the Federal Court at Frankfort in place of Clerk Walter G. Chapman, who died a few weeks ago.

1,000,000 POUNDS

Of Equity Tobacco Sold to the Trust at 15 Cents Per Pound

FRANKFORT, KY., March 10—President Clarence Lebus of the Burley Tobacco Society, a branch of the Society of Equity, announced here tonight that a sale of 1,000 hogheads of burley tobacco was made today to the American Tobacco Company.

The price paid was 15 cents a pound, the amount for which the Burley growers have been contending since they organized to pool and withhold their crops from the so-called Tobacco Trust until it came to their terms.

This, the first sale made to the Trust by the organization since the fight began two years ago, was consummated at Winchester, where the samples of tobacco are stored in the Society's warehouses.

Mr. J. J. Fitzgerald of Lexington, formerly of this city, is a member of the Executive Committee of the Master Plumbers' Association of Kentucky.

Yesterday was a busy day at the American Tobacco Company's plant in East Third street. Between 75,000 and 100,000 pounds of the weed were taken in at the big warehouses. W. L. Holton and S. G. Griffith delivered a crop of 13,000 pounds, for which they received 14c; Frazee & Brooks, 6,000 pounds, 12½ cents, and Philip Schadle of Murphysville a big and a A1 crop, and thirty-five others waiting turns to be unloaded.
